

O Jesus, King, receive my prayer, and consider my supplication as a pledge to Thee. For Thou, O living King, hath gone forth and gone up out of Hell, as Conqueror.

Woe to those who have rejected Thee; for, to evil spirits and demons, Thou art sorrow, to Satan and to death, Thou art pain, to sin and Hell, Thou art mourning.

Yet, O how joy has come today, for those who art born anew. Therefore, on this great day, we give great glory to Thee, Who died and is now alive, that to all Thou mayest give life and resurrection!
