New Testament Part II: FOOTSTEPS OF SAINT PAUL

The 'standalone sequel' to New Testament Part I, Holy Land: Footsteps of Our Lord & Our Lady!

A photograph of the ancient ruins of Corinth, Greece, featuring several tall, weathered stone columns and a partially reconstructed archway. The site is set against a backdrop of rolling hills and a clear blue sky.

ITINERARY

B = Breakfast L = Lunch D = Dinner

Departure Day · Fri. 20 Sep.

Depart North America on overnight flight to Athens, Greece. Meals aboard flights.

Day 1: Arrival Day · Sat. 21 Sep.

Arrival in Athens and transfer to our hotel; balance of the day at leisure. Celebrate Mass and enjoy a welcome dinner with the group. Overnight in Athens. D

Day 2: Athens · Sun. 22 Sep.

Go to the Acropolis and learn about the full splendour of ancient Athens: Temple of Zeus, Propylaea, Temple of Athena Nikē, Erechtheion, Parthenon. Learning about pagan Athens will help us understand better the cultural climate encountered by Saint Paul when he brought Christianity to the Greeks. See Acts 17:16–34 for his famous sermon on the Areopagus (the Hill of Ares/Mars).

After lunch, visit the Acropolis museum to see the artifacts from Ancient, Roman and Christian Athens. Travel to the heart of Athens to see the Syntagma (Constitution Square), the Parliament, the National Gardens, other famous sites of the city. Return to the hotel for dinner and overnight in Athens. B, L, D

Day 3: Delphi, Kalambaka · Mon. 23 Sep.

Morning drive on the national highway through ancient Thebes, mountainous Livadeia, and picturesque Arachova to come to Delphi, thought of as the 'navel of the world' by the ancient Greeks. Tour the museum, see the famous Bronze Charioteer, and visit the Temple of Apollo, the Theatre, the Athenian Treasury, and the Castalian Spring. Drive through Lamia and Trikala for dinner and overnight at our hotel in Kalambaka. B, L, D

* N.B. Planned itinerary subject to change.

Day 4: Meteora, Berœa (Veria), Thessaloniki · Tue. 24 Sep.

Visit the famed Hanging Monasteries of Meteora, precipitously built atop immense natural rock formations with sheer drops, and second in importance among the Eastern Churches only to Mount Athos. Celebrate Holy Mass in the Biblical city of Berœa (Veria), where Paul, Silas and Timothy preached the Gospel to the noble-hearted locals who received the word eagerly, "daily searching the Scriptures" to see if what they said was true (Acts 17:10–12). The traditional Tribune displays a recently finished mosaic that commemorates the Saint's sermon there. Visit the beautifully frescoed churches in the "Little Jerusalem" of Greece. Continue on for dinner and overnight at our hotel in Thessaloniki. B, L, D

Day 5: Philippi · Wed. 25 Sep., Michaelmas Day

Drive to Philippi in the footsteps of Sts Paul & Silas (Acts 17:1), and where the Holy Gospel was preached for the very first time in Europe (Acts 16:12–40), circa A.D. 51. Visit the archaeological site of the Roman Forum, the ruins of two ancient basilicas, the Theatre, the Prison of Saint Paul, and the Baptistery of Saint Lydia. Saint Paul wrote II Epistle to the Corinthians while staying in the area of Philippi.

Visit Kavala (Biblical Neapolis), where Saint Paul arrived on his second missionary journey (Acts 16:11), and his point of departure for his final journey to Jerusalem (Acts 20:6). Dinner and overnight in Thessaloniki. B, L, D

Day 6: Thessaloniki, Athens · Thu. 26 Sep.

Enjoy a panoramic visit of the city of Thessaloniki, the first-century inhabitants of which were the recipients of Saint Paul's I & II Epistles to the Thessalonians, some of his earliest Apostolic writings to the Holy Church, which treat of the Second Coming of Our Lord. Visit the old city ramparts, the Rotunda of Galerius which was transformed into the Church of Saint George, and the nearby Galerius Arch over the famous Via Egnatia. Spend time visiting the two most beautiful basilicas in the city, St. Demetrios and Agia Sophia. After lunch, drive back to Athens via the Vale of Tempē, between Mount Olympus and Mount Ossa, and Thermopylæ, the ancient fortified pass of the eponymous battle. Dinner and overnight at our hotel in Athens. B, L, D

Day 7: Cruise to Mykonos · Fri. 27 Sep.

Transfer to the port to embark on our Iconic Aegean Cruise aboard Celestyal Cruises. We make landfall at Mykonos to spend a free afternoon in this charming town filled with historic churches, restaurants, shops, and old-world appeal. Return to the ship to sail on to Ephesus on the coast of Turkey, where Saint Paul ministered for over two years (Acts 19). Dinner and overnight on board. B, L, D

Day 8: Cruise to Ephesus: House of Our Lady, Basilica of Saint John, Kuşadası · Cruise to Patmos: Cave of the Apocalypse · Sat. 28 Sep.

We awaken at Mt Koressos (Bülbüldağı, ‘Mt Nightingale’), where it is believed Our Lady lived in a small house towards the end of her earthly life, being taken care of by Saint John the Apostle. Celebrate Holy Mass in the Chapel of the House of Our Lady; then visit the ruins of the Basilica of St. John which stands over his burial place.

Saint Paul also wrote his First Epistle to the Corinthians while staying in Ephesus. See the Great Theatre of Ephesus with its capacity of 24,000 people, and where the silversmith Demetrius failed to incite the pagan community to riot against the Christian community (Acts 19:24-40).

Before leaving the area, we will pass along the Arcadian Way and explore the beautiful town of Kuşadası, known as Ephesus Neopolis in Byzantine times, before returning to the ship for lunch and sailing on to Patmos.

On Patmos, we will visit the Cave of the Apocalypse, where Saint John lived in exiled in his latter years and wrote the final book of Sacred Scripture. Tour the 11th century Monastery of Saint John the Theologian dedicated to that Holy Apostle, and see its many precious icons and treasured manuscripts. Return to the ship; dinner and overnight on board. B, L, D

PLANNED LOCATIONS* FOR HOLY MASS INCLUDE:

- ❖ Cathedral of Saint Dionysios the Areopagite, Athens
- ❖ Church of Saint Theresa, Athens
- ❖ Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Thessaloniki
- ❖ House of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Ephesus
- ❖ Cathedral of Saint Photini, Corinth

* Subject to change before final confirmation.

Route Map

Day 9: Cruise to Crete, Santorini · Sun. 29 Sep. · Michaelmas Day

Start the day with a guided tour of the ruins of Knossos on the island of Crete to learn about the Minoans, the first European civilization. See the Knossos Palace, the Venetian fortresses, museums, and experience the vibrant outdoor market. Saint Paul’s stay in Crete is not described extensively in Scripture, and was apparently too short for him to engage in much missionary activity (see Acts 27).

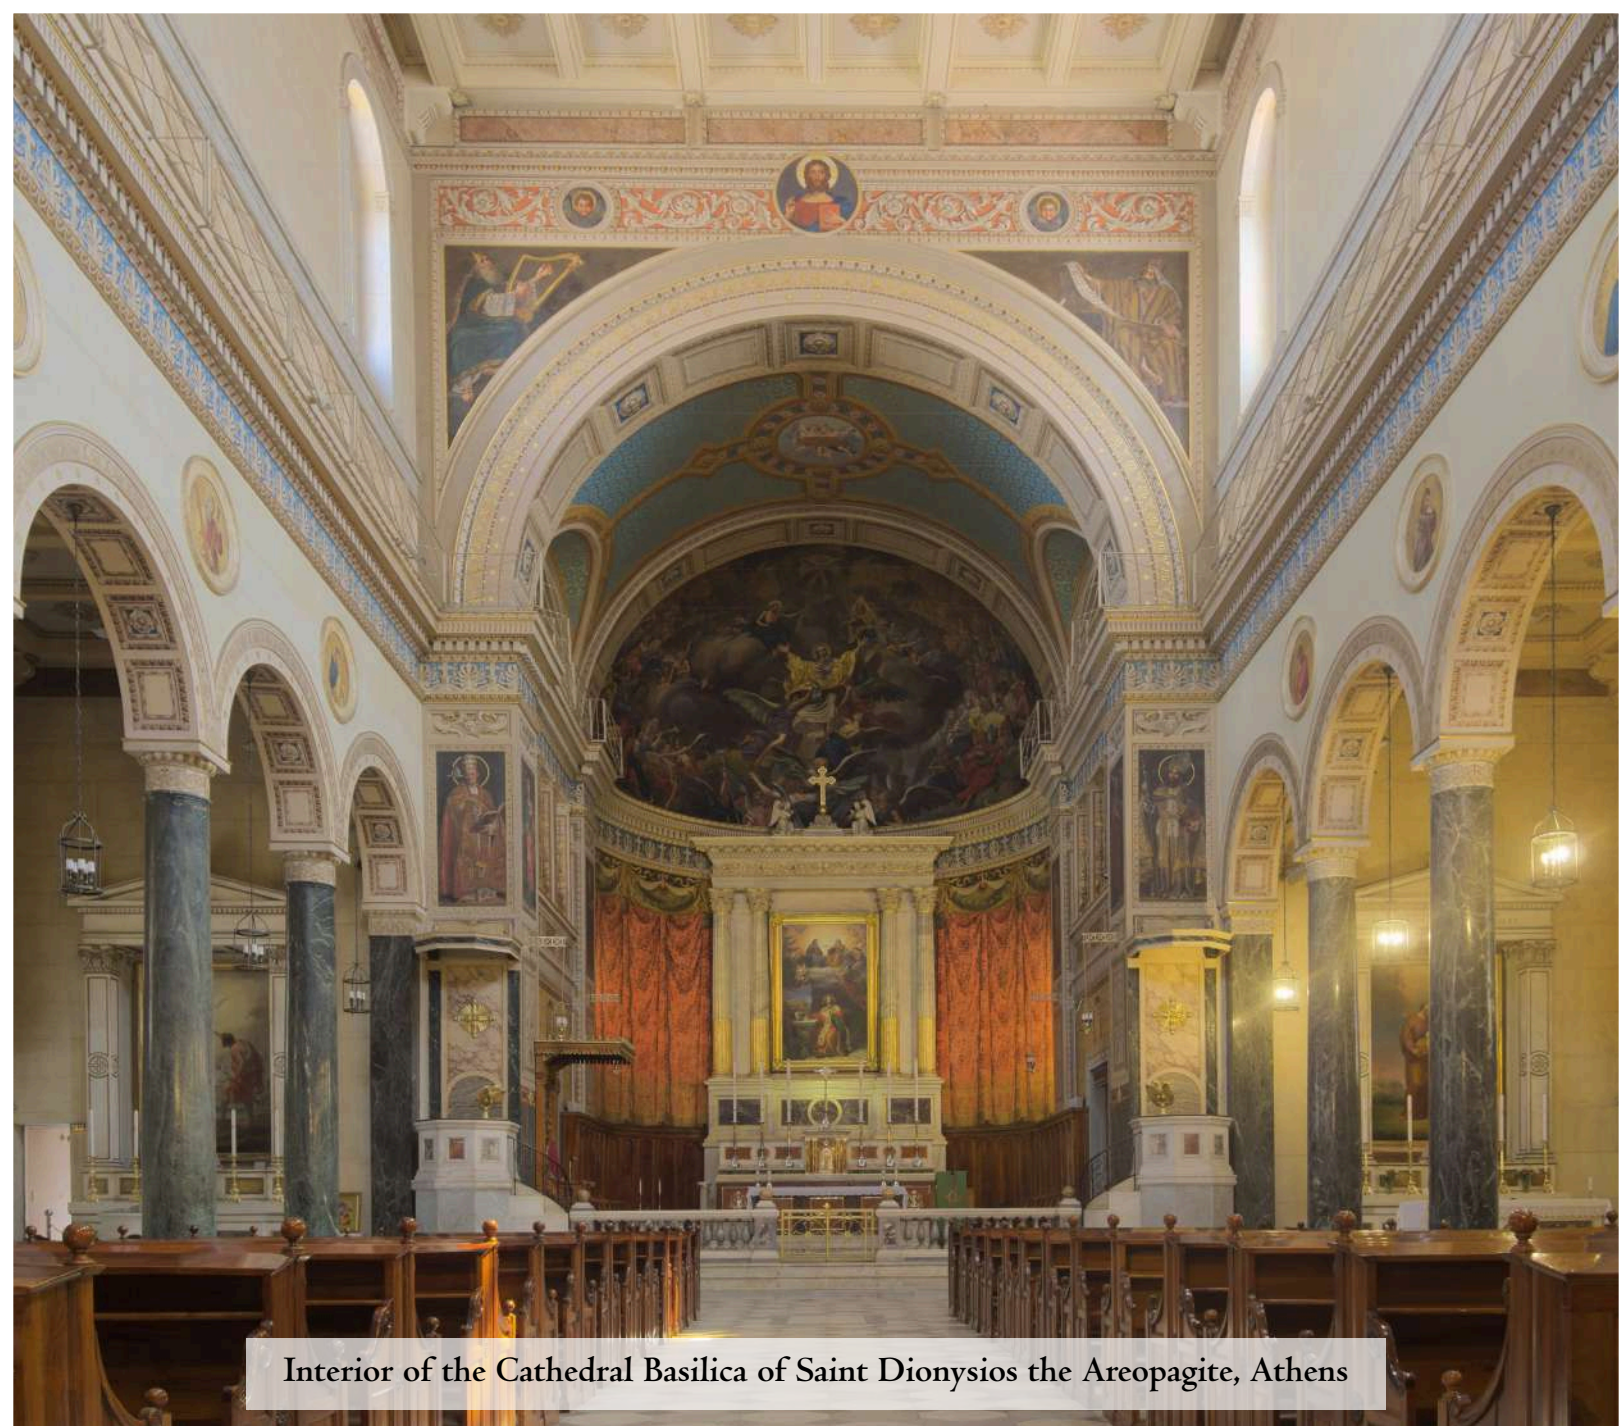

Sail on to Santorini, where the stunning landscape features a famous volcanic crater barely submerged in the sea. Optional guided tour of Santorini. Return to the ship for dinner and overnight on board. B, L, D.

Day 10: Corinth, Athens · Mon. 30 Sep.

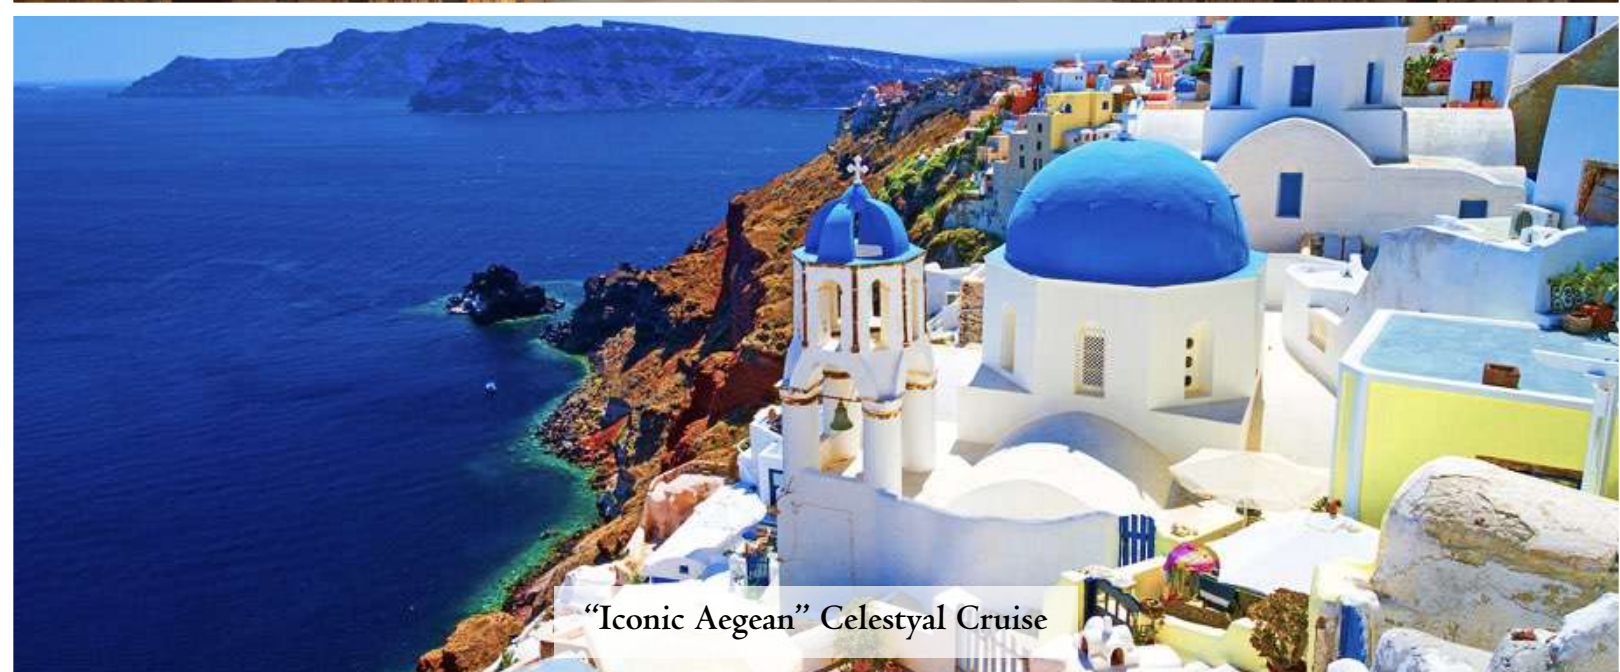

Morning disembarkation in Athens to drive to the ruins of ancient Corinth, where Saint Paul ministered for a year and a half, and from where he wrote his Epistles to the Thessalonians and to the Romans. See the tribunal, the place to which Saint Paul was dragged and Gallio refused to pass judgment on him (Acts 18:1-17). Return to Athens along a new scenic road to pass by the port of Kenchreai, from where Saint Paul sailed to Ephesus (Acts 18:18). Overnight at our hotel in Athens. B, L, D

Day 11: Return Day · Tue. 1 Oct.

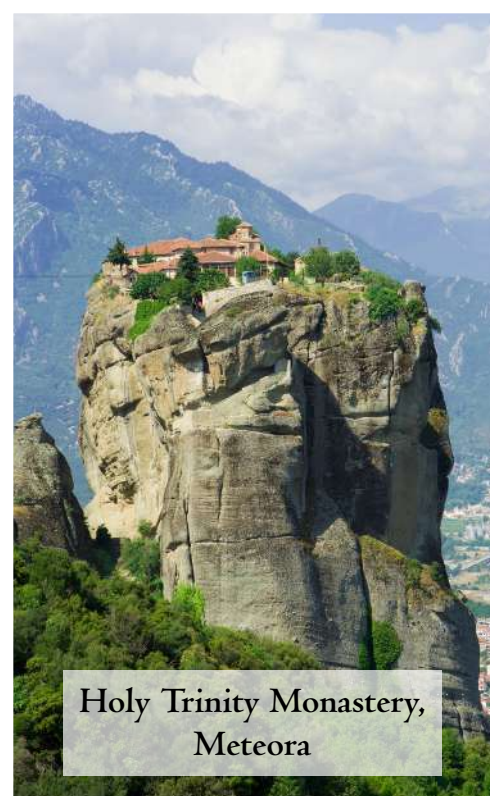

Early morning Mass before checking out of our hotel and transferring to Athens International Airport for our return flights home. Meals aboard flights. B ☺

These prices are stated as of February 22, 2024, and could be subject to change prior to final invoicing. In such cases, you will be notified by e-mail. With the exception of subsequently imposed government taxes, the final price cannot increase after the final payment due date of July 20, 2024.

Payment Schedule:

- For details on how to submit payment, please refer to the Payment Schedule on the following page.

Separate purchase of travel insurance is required.

All pilgrims should purchase their own personal travel insurance from a third-party broker to help protect their investment in the trip, and to help provide for unforeseen circumstances while travelling abroad. We recommend all-inclusive, “cancel-for-any-reason” insurance. Terms will vary depending on the broker and the type of plan purchased.

We suggest visiting www.squaremouth.com for more details and estimates.
